Noles Start Season with Win

The Seminole A's opened the season with a big 32-0 win over the visiting Upland Falcons. Six different players scored in the contest – Matt Chavez scored two TD's, one on an impressive 25 yard punt return. Steven Comstock picked up 29 yards and a touchdown, and Raymond Serrano scored a TD on a 20 yard run. Josh Lagal rounded out the scoring on a 6 yard run. Matthew Avila scored a PAT along with Johnny Padilla. Padilla gained 29 total yards on the day.

The Seminoles never lost yards on a play during the contest thanks to some great blocking efforts. Thomas Coupland and Joseph Romero each picked up 8 blocks, while Alex Alvarez, Joey Davis and Robert Garcia each had 6 blocks.

The Seminole defensive stats were not that impressive – mainly because the Falcon offense rarely had the ball. The Seminoles recovered kickoffs three times, and the defense held the Falcons to only three first downs in the contest, all late in the game. Matthew Chavez, Raymond Serrano, Aaron McCraven and Elijah Palacio led the Noles in tackles with 3 each, followed by Steven Comstock, Johnny Padilla and Mason De Los Santos with two. Noah Rodriguez, Josh Lagal, Robert Flores, Richard Lopez, Robert Garcia and Joseph Guerra had 1 tackle each.

Florida State will take on the Miami Hurricanes this Saturday in Arcadia at 2:00 PM.
