FSU Qualifies for Title Game

The Florida State A's ended their regular season with a 48-28 win over the Georgia Bulldogs to earn a spot in the Championship Game on Saturday, December 6. They will face the winner of Miami/North Carolina game to be played this Saturday in Arcadia at 3:00 PM.

Matt Chavez gained a season high 142 all purpose yards – unfortunately, 72 of those yards were called back because of penalties (but it was still very impressive). Steven Comstock gained 62 yards and scored 16 points (which included 2 PAT kicks). Matthew Avila scored two TDs from his quarterback position, and Raymond Serrano and Johnny Padilla added points as well. Noah Rodriguez scored on a “snatch and run” play on defense. Aaron McCraven led the offensive line with 7 blocks.

Joseph Romero led the defense with 7 tackles, followed by Joey Davis, Robert Garcia and Joseph Guerra with 4 each. Richard Lopez, Elijah Palacio and Robert Flores each had two tackles, while Alex Alvarez, Thomas Coupland and Josh Lagal each had 1.

Non-League Game This Saturday

The Seminoles will be playing a “tune-up” game this Saturday against the Upland Falcons at Russell Park at 1:30.
