Noles Battle to 6-6 Tie

The undefeated FSU Seminoles faced a strong Georgia Bulldog team last Saturday and had to fight to preserve a 6-6 tie. The Seminoles had three drives stopped by turnovers in the first half, all of which were deep into Bulldog territory. The Bulldogs lone score came on a 35 yard run.

Late in the game with the score tied 6-6, the Bulldogs had the ball first and goal on the 2 yard line. The Seminole defense stiffened and kept the Bulldogs out of the end zone to keep the score tied.

Raymond Serrano scored the lone TD for the Seminoles, while Steven Comstock led the offense with 42 yards of offense in limited play. Serrano and Aaron McCraven led the defense each recording 7 tackles.

East AA's Come Away with Win

The East AA's defeated the West last Tuesday night 12-6. Raymond Serrano and Steven Comstock scored the two TD's for the East. Joseph Romero, Noah Rodriguez and Aaron McCraven played inspired ball on both sides of the line. Matt Avila led his East offense at QB, executing plays with flawless precision.

The win combined with wins by the B's, A/AA's and the Pac-10 gave the East the overall victory 4-2. The East has not lost a Future Bowl since 1992.
